

Bio - Fabio Antonello

Fabio is Founder and CEO of FA Consulting & Coaching, a Swiss based sole proprietorship company, specializing in systemic Consulting and Coaching in areas such as Management, Career and Life Style.

Prior to founding the organization in 2009, Fabio served as Manager and Executive for over fifteen years. He was also Board Member in two international organizations. His striking international business experience and the ability to integrate cultures was gained by working with international and multinational private sector organizations in Europe, Asia, Far East, Middle East, Russia, Ukraine, USA and Latin America. He also lived in Guernsey, UK.

Fabio began his professional career as an Engineering Technician with Technology Group Sulzer LTD, where he worked on national and international Engineering projects. Then he went on to work for some smaller technology firms. Moving on, he became a Sales Executive and Head of Department for Baumgartner Papers Holding LTD, a Manufacturer and Distributor of consumer goods, where he was also part of the Management Board. Finally, he was General Manager and Managing Director for US based The Pasha Group, an integrated Logistics and Supply Chain Service provider, overseeing the Swiss subsidiary and the European Operations.

He was chair of the local Management Team and served as Board Member.

From a personality standpoint, Fabio is open to new experience, very conscientious, extraverted and resilient toward critical factors. He is naturally analytical and likes to evaluate matters decisively.

Distinctive skills include fluency in English, French, German and Italian and he is proficient in communicating with all levels of management and stakeholders. He is also financially literate and experienced in managing Mergers and Acquisitions.

Fabio graduated with a Professional Diploma in Management, an MBA (major: Strategy, Finance, HRM, Creative Management) and an MSc in International Finance & Management (major: IFRS and international Investments) from The Open University Business School-OUBS, UK. He completed an Executive Marketing Program at the Institute for Management Development-IMD, CH. Additionally, he obtained a CAS in Sports Management from the Swiss Graduate School of Public Administration-IDHEAP, CH. Driven by the importance of people development and interpersonal relationships, he went on to get an Executive Coaching Certificate from the Academy of Executive Coaching-AoEC, UK and completed the Ethics at Work programme with the Centre for Continuing Professional Development at The Open University, UK.

His affiliations include Alumnus at the OUBS-UK, the IMD-CH as well as the IDHEAP-CH and AoEC-UK. He is part of the Steering committee of the OUBS Alumni Association Switzerland and Member of The Open University Ethics Centre as well as the Swiss Association of Sports Managers.
